

Adding Fun, Networking and Learning to Meetings & Events Since 1987!

Dear Ed,

Now is the perfect time to plan a summertime event to connect and energize your team! Corporate Event Enterprises can make your planning easier with one of our interactive programs that generate excitement and outstanding networking opportunities!

With over 100 unique programs, you can select one just right for your group - or we can custom design a "Made to Order Experience" specially suited for your meeting agenda and group dynamic. AND, if you book by April 30th, you will receive a 10% discount!

Here are a few of our Top Summertime Picks...

Anchors Aweigh! - Teams test their sea legs and try their hand at sailing a tall ship. This program is designed to be dynamic, interactive and safe, allowing individuals, teams and organizations to work together to achieve common goals, learn about sailing, and have fun!

The Hunt for Sam & Frank: A "Culinary" Adventure - An adventure hunt where speed is not the most important requirement! Sam "Pale" Adams and Frank Furter are on the loose (most likely at a local eatery or pub), and it is up to your secret agent teams to hunt them down!

Windy City History Comes Alive! - Discover the rich history of "The City of Big Shoulders," and encounter some characters from Chicago's colorful past. This hunt guides teams through the streets of the Windy City, and back in time!

Soapbox Derby Daze - Relive the excitement of your youth as teams assemble and decorate their own, driver supported, soapbox racer for the big race. Teams complete various challenges to get "extra" enhancements for their racer and decorate not only their car, but also their driver's uniform!

Bike Building Workshop - Teams build and accessorize youth bicycles for a local children's charity. Points are collected by the quality of the bikes' assembly, how well it is accessorized, a marketing pitch to a panel of judges and how well it performs on our slalom course. Make this event truly special when, unbeknownst to your guests, the kids arrive onsite to accept their new wheels!

Casino Night - A perfect nightcap to a great summer day! The famous casinos of Las Vegas and Monte Carlo come to your group in an evening of cards, dice and spins of the roulette table. Let the chips fall where they may!

For over 20 years prominent corporate planners have turned to Corporate Event Enterprises to add interaction to their meetings and special events. All of our programs come complete with event materials, energetic emcee, experienced event staff, set up and delivery - making it stress-free and easy for you to entertain your team.
